MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE BULLETIN
MIDDLEBURY, VERMONT
Graduate School of French in France

With the aid of a grant from the Carnegie Corporation Middlebury College has inaugurated a Graduate School of French in France. In October 1949, a limited group of American graduate students will go to France under this plan. They will spend the academic year studying in a selected and coordinated program of advanced instruction on French linguistics, phonetics, literature, history, fine arts and social institutions. These courses will be followed in various institutes or other divisions of the University of Paris. The students will work under the close guidance and supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. At the close of the year, final examinations will be administered under his direction, and the successful candidates will receive the Middlebury Master of Arts degree, in addition to any French certificates or diplômes which they may be able to earn by their enrollment in the French schools.

A preliminary summer of preparation at the Middlebury French Summer School is required, and only those who prove themselves qualified will be allowed to enroll. Members of the group will be treated as mature graduate students. They will make their own arrangements for transportation, board and room, with the advice and guidance of the Middlebury Director. The director will facilitate worthwhile social contacts, and will assist their plans for travel, visits to museums, and attendance at theaters and concerts. Each member will be officially enrolled as a graduate student at Middlebury College, and will pay his tuition fee to the college; this will cover all enrollment, examination, and other academic fees in France. Teachers of French or graduate students who are interested in this plan are invited to write for the complete bulletin containing detailed information on the program and costs.

The Middlebury College
Foreign Language Schools
SUMMER SESSION OF 1949

History  The Middlebury College Language Schools were the pioneers in the development of segregated, specialized summer schools for the study of modern languages in this country. The German School was founded in 1915, followed by the French and Spanish Schools in 1916 and 1917 respectively. These schools represented a distinctive contribution to educational progress in America, and quickly won for Middlebury an international reputation. In 1920, the Bread Loaf School of English was begun on a similar pattern. The German School was reopened in 1931 and located in the neighboring village of Bristol. In 1932, the Italian School was added to the two other Romance Language units. The Russian School was inaugurated in the summer of 1945.

The Idea  These schools stand for thorough training in a modern foreign language. They aim to give a mastery of the spoken and written language, and an intimate knowledge of the life, institutions, literature, history, and culture of the foreign country. Success hinges upon the consistent enforcement of the Middlebury idea—the segregation of students from contact with English; the concentration of the work of each student upon the foreign language; the exclusive use of the language in and out of the classroom; and the careful supervision and coordination of courses to meet the different needs of all students. Each school has its separate residences and dining halls and a faculty of native instructors. During the entire session, the foreign language is the sole medium of communication in work and play. From the day of arrival, students are pledged to speak the foreign language.

Objectives  Throughout their history, the schools have been primarily devoted to the intensive preparation of teachers of languages. They have also shared in preparing men and women for foreign commercial or governmental contacts, and for participation in the new international organizations, both political and cultural. All those for whom understanding, speaking, reading, and writing a foreign language is of primary importance, will find at Middlebury ideal conditions for the pursuit of their special objectives. The fundamental ideal of the Language Schools of Middlebury College is to help prepare Americans for a durable peace and real international cooperation, based on an understanding of our cultural heritage and the thought processes of our neighbors in a small world.

Academic Status The quality of instruction offered at the Middlebury Schools is well known. As compared with foreign travel or study, a summer session here is more economical, provides courses better suited to the needs of American teachers, and gives an uninterrupted and intensive training which is not found in foreign institutions. At the same time, such study furnishes the indispensable preparation for later travel in the foreign land. The summer of 1948 brought students from forty-four different states and four foreign countries, including Arizona, Arkansas, California, China, Georgia, Iowa, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oregon, Texas and Washington. Two hundred twenty-two colleges and universities were represented. Seventy-six per cent of the students held degrees, and twenty per cent held the Master’s degree or the Doctorate. The majority of the students are candidates for advanced degrees. Fifty-six Master's degrees were awarded in August, 1948.

Location The Middlebury Language Schools are located in a lovely Vermont countryside, at the foot of the Green Mountains, and about twenty miles from Lake Champlain. The French, Italian, Russian and Spanish Schools occupy the campus of Middlebury College, founded in 1800 and still one of the most charming of New England colleges. The life of the German School centers around the quaint village green of Bristol, twelve miles away and nearer the mountains. The summer climate is delightful, with clear dry breezes, cool nights, and sufficient rain to keep the meadows and woods richly green. Students treasure the memories of many scenes of Vermont mountains and forests; the valley of the winding Otter, Lake Dunmore in its hollow among the hills; the Adirondacks, pink in the morning sun, or the eastern range growing purple in the twilight.

Atmosphere The schools endeavor to make everything about the life of a student during his stay contribute as richly and as pleasantly as possible to the mastery of the language. Similarity of aim among students coming from widely separated sections of the country fosters good comradeship and an esprit de corps; while constant association with instructors at the dining tables, in songs and games, on hikes and picnics, no less than in the classroom, brings both inspirational and intellectual stimulus. Any language pursued under such conditions quickly becomes a subjective element in the life of a student. A high ratio of instructors to students is maintained, approximately one to eight.
Recreation  No college in the East offers more attractive opportunities for out-of-door recreation than are found at Middlebury in summer. The program of studies is so arranged as to leave late afternoons and weekends free. Groups of students frequently spend an afternoon at a lake side or hiking in the mountains. Unusual opportunities are afforded by the Battell Forest of 13,000 acres, belonging to Middlebury College. Weekend hiking parties on the celebrated Long Trail of the Green Mountains have been popular. Swimming may be enjoyed at Lake Dunmore, or at Bartlett's Falls in Bristol. The tennis courts on the college campus are reserved for the use of students. There is a golf course within walking distance. Good automobile roads provide opportunity for trips into rural Vermont, to Lake Champlain, Lake Dunmore, Mount Mansfield, Ticonderoga, Ausable Chasm, the Adirondacks, Lake Placid, Lake George, and the White Mountains, any of which can be visited in a day's trip.

Admission  Students may enter without examinations and without being candidates for degrees. No student will be admitted, however, unless his qualifications are approved by the Dean, and the right is reserved to place all students in the classes best suited to their advancement.

The schools are essentially graduate schools; and the courses are generally of an advanced nature, requiring advanced preparation and real linguistic ability. Preference for admission will be given to teachers of the language, or graduate students preparing to teach. A few undergraduates with a serious purpose may be accepted if they are recommended by their professors as having adequate preparation.

No student will be admitted to the schools unless he is able and willing to use only the foreign language, during the entire session, even in the individual dormitory rooms. This rule, which has become a cherished and unique tradition of the schools, and which is a fundamental of the Middlebury method, goes into force from the moment the student enrolls. Students may, of course, use English in their dealings with the people of the village, but even in these cases, students must not speak English to each other. This rule holds good for all picnics and excursions. At the opening of the schools, each student will be required to sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule. The Dean reserves the right to dismiss from the school students who willfully break it. Only the Director or the Dean may grant temporary release, upon occasions which may warrant it.

If, even after the opening of the school, a student is found to be unable to comply with the rules of the school, and to follow a program of courses with profit, the administration reserves the right to request him to withdraw and to refund the fees paid.
Cooperation  All the Middlebury Language Schools maintain the closest cooperation with each other. An enrolled student may audit any courses in his own school. If, by reason of his proficiency, he receives the consent of the Deans of both schools, he may also audit courses in another school without charge, or he may enroll for credit in courses in another school on payment of a fee. It should be noted that because of the distance involved, such arrangements are difficult between schools on the Middlebury campus and the German School at Bristol.

All the schools share the use of the general Phonetics and Pronunciation Laboratory located in Hillside Cottage. In class groups or individually, students have access to the most up-to-date equipment for speech recording on acetate discs or paper tape, electric play-backs with earphones, and separate practice rooms. The laboratory is open at regular hours, in charge of a technician and assistant.

Credits  Students who desire credits must indicate that fact when they enroll, and, if candidates for a Middlebury degree, they must present evidence of their qualifications before their work will be counted. An official transcript will be issued upon application to the College Registrar. No certificates will be given for attendance, nor to students who do not take the final examinations. Not more than six credits may be gained in one summer by an undergraduate, and not more than eight credits by a graduate student. (See pages 23, 37, 46, 56, 67.) A graduate student must receive a grade of "B" in a course in order to obtain credit for that course. The undergraduate passing grade is "C," subject to the regulations of the student's own college. One credit is equal to one semester hour. Each summer course meeting daily grants two semester hours of credit.

Examinations In each school the last days of the session are devoted to final examinations. They are required of students who desire credits, transcripts, or recommendations, and it is very advisable that all should take them. The New York State written Examination for Approval of Oral Work is given at Middlebury early in August.

The Master's Degree Candidates for the Master's degree must hold a baccalaureate degree from some approved college. To obtain the degree of Master of Arts at Middlebury College, thirty credits are necessary. Twenty of the thirty credits must be earned at Middlebury College. Thirty credits may be gained by proficient students in four summer sessions. Students with six or more credits accepted from other institutions may complete their work for the Master's degree in three summers. Students desiring to transfer graduate credits earned at other institutions should present them to the dean of their school. Study in a foreign country in approved summer courses may be counted toward the M.A. degree from Middlebury; each individual case must be approved by the dean. Six credits may be allowed for an equivalent of ninety hours of class exercises followed by examinations. Six credits is the maximum allowed for a single summer session of foreign study. Twenty credits must be earned in the major language; ten may be earned in related subjects approved by the Dean.

Students desiring to count credits taken at Middlebury toward degrees to be secured elsewhere should obtain permission to do so from the institution to which they wish the credits transferred.

Degrees are conferred in August or at the Commencement following the completion of the work. A fee of $15 is required for the diploma.

The Degree of Doctor of Modern Languages Middlebury College also offers, through the Language Schools, the advanced degree of Doctor of Modern Languages (D.M.L.). The main requirements are a thorough knowledge of a major language, its phonetics, philology, and literature; two minor languages; the equivalent of a year's resident study beyond the Master's degree; a year of study in a foreign country; and a thesis.
A separate leaflet will be sent on request, giving full details concerning study requirements, examinations, and the thesis.

Offices  The offices of the President and Vice-President of the College, and the Summer Schools Office are on the third floor of the Old Chapel. The office of the Director of the French School is in East Forest Hall, and that of the Dean is in Le Château. The office of the Director of the Spanish School is in Old Chapel. The office of the Director of the Italian School is in the Sigma Phi Epsilon House. The office of the German School is at the Bristol High School. The office of the Director of the Russian School is in Hillcrest Cottage.

Living Accommodations  At the French, Italian, Russian, and Spanish Schools on the Middlebury campus, students are accommodated in the college dormitories or fraternity houses and board is provided by the college. All rooms are completely furnished by the college; blankets, sheets and towels are supplied. Arrangements for personal laundry may be made after arrival, with the matrons of the halls of residence. No accommodations for married couples are available in the halls of residence.

At the German School at Bristol, students are accommodated in private homes near the school; board is provided at the Bristol Inn, which is also the center of the school’s social life. Rooms are completely furnished; bedding and linen are supplied.

There is a graduate nurse in residence on the campus, holding regular office hours, and on call at all times in case of emergency.

Opening of the Session  The French, Italian, Russian and Spanish Schools at Middlebury will open the session of 1949 on Friday, July 1, and will continue until August 18. August 15 and 16 will be taken for final examinations. Classes are conducted five days in the week. The houses of residence will open to receive students on Friday, July 1, and lunch will be served at 12:30 p.m. No guests can be received earlier. All houses will close after lunch, Thursday noon, August 18, and no guests can be accommodated after that time.

The German School at Bristol will open its session on Monday, July 4, and will continue until August 18. The opening exercises will be held Monday evening, July 4. The houses of residence will be open to receive students on Monday, July 4, and the first meal will be served at 6:30 p.m. No guests can be received earlier except by special arrangement. All houses of residence will be closed after breakfast, Thursday, August 18, and no guests can be accommodated after that date.

Enrollment of Students  It is important that immediately upon arrival students should consult the Director or Dean of their school in regard to the definite selection of courses. The Deans will be at their respective offices from 9 a.m. to 12 m., and from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. on the enrollment days. After this consultation, the students should enroll, and pay all bills to the Treasurer.

Fees The administration reserves the right to make any changes without notice in courses, staff, living arrangements, etc. The following information about fees should be carefully noted:

French, Italian, and Russian Schools: Rates in these schools vary according to the houses of residence and single or double occupancy of rooms. The inclusive fee for registration, tuition, board and room will be from $275 to $310.

German School: Rates will vary from $280 to $290 depending on single or double occupancy of rooms.

Spanish School: A uniform charge of $290 covers registration, tuition, board and room.

Registration Fee: Each applicant who is accepted will pay a $35 registration fee. This fee will be applied to the student’s total bill and an applicant is considered officially registered only when he has paid this fee. The fee will be refunded if notice of cancellation is received by the Secretary of the Summer Schools before May 15; after May 15 no refund will be made. Money should not be sent until the secretary requests payment. Rooms are assigned only to officially registered students; therefore, a room deposit is not required. All payments should be made in checks or money-orders, not cash; and the name of the student for whose account payment is made should be clearly indicated.

Non-Resident Students The tuition fee for students rooming outside is $140. Such persons may be boarded in the dining halls, if there is room for them.

Auditors All courses in a school are open to auditing at any time by members of that school, or to members of another of the Language Schools on permission of the respective Deans. Visitors in Middlebury, not members of a school, may be permitted to enroll as auditors in one of the Language Schools, on payment of the fee of $15 a week or $60 for four or more weeks. All such auditors are not entitled to take part in class discussions, nor to receive the attention of the professor. Auditors are entitled to attend social events and evening entertainments. To enroll as a regular member of a course, a student must pay the full tuition charge.

Late Enrollment All students are required to enroll and pay all fees not later than the first day of instruction. Enrollment after that day will be accepted only by special permission secured in advance from the Dean, and will be subject to a fine of $3.00 for the first day and $1.00 additional for each day late during the first week of classes, after which no enrollments will be accepted. Rooms reserved for students will not be held for them after the second day of instruction unless special permission has been secured in advance from the Dean.

Other Middlebury Schools A student enrolled in one of the Language Schools may, with the consent of the Deans of both schools, audit courses in another school without charge, or enroll for credit in courses in another school on payment of a fee of $15.00 per course, payable at the end of the first week of instruction.
Transcript Fees  One official transcript of a summer’s work will be issued without charge on request to the College Registrar. A fee of $1.00 is charged for each additional transcript.

Refunds  Owing to fixed obligations for service, instruction, and maintenance, persons arriving late or leaving school before the close of the session must not expect reimbursement of any charges for the unconsumed time. No allowances will be made for weekend absences.

Veterans  Veterans may attend the Language Schools in accordance with the educational benefits of the G. I. Bill of Rights. The cost of tuition will be paid directly by the Government; room and board charges will be paid by the veteran. If a veteran wishes to enroll, he should apply immediately for a Certificate of Eligibility from his local Veterans Administration Agency. This certificate must be presented to the Treasurer on enrollment day if the student expects to have the cost of his tuition paid by the Government; otherwise, he should come prepared to pay his own tuition bill. Married veterans living in town must pay the registration fee, but it will be refunded after the opening of the school, if their papers are in order in the Treasurer’s Office.

Guests  In view of the fact that the college facilities are very crowded, it will not be possible to accommodate guests of students during the session or at Commencement.
Payments  A student’s entire bill is payable at the opening of the session. Students are urgently advised to avoid unnecessary delays and inconvenience by bringing all money for fees, board, and lodging, etc. in the form of money orders, express checks, or cashier’s checks on an accredited bank. Checks should be made payable to Middlebury College.

Self-Help  For scholarships and opportunities for service, see pages 27, 38, 46, 57, 69.

Student Mail  In order to insure prompt delivery of their mail, students in the French, Italian, Russian and Spanish Schools at Middlebury should have all mail addressed to the house of residence to which they are assigned. German School students should have mail sent in care of the German School, Bristol, Vermont.

Railroad Routes  Middlebury can be reached from New York City or Boston by the Rutland Railroad. Students leaving New York or Boston in the morning will arrive in the afternoon. Night trains leaving New York or Boston arrive in the morning. Students on the route of the Delaware and Hudson can make connections with the Rutland Railroad at Rutland, Vermont. Students from the West reach Middlebury via the New York Central, changing at Albany, N. Y., and Troy, N. Y.

German School students should buy tickets and check baggage to New Haven, Vermont, the next stop north of Middlebury. Advance arrangements should be made with the Dean of the German School for transportation from New Haven to Bristol.

Correspondence  Further information about admission, courses, self-help and scholarships may be secured by writing to the Dean of the school concerned. Correspondence concerning room reservations, fees, requests for catalogs, and questions of a general nature should be addressed to the Secretary of the Summer Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vt., indicating which school is referred to.
École Française

(From July 1 to August 18)

Faithful to its goals, its traditions and experience, the FRENCH SUMMER SCHOOL again presents a varied and balanced program of studies for all those who are professionally interested in the language of France and her culture.

The School is happy to announce the appointment of M. Max-Pol Fouchet as its Visiting Professor. M. Fouchet, who has just returned to France after a brilliant lecture tour in this country, will bring the youthful and scholarly enthusiasm of a poet and art critic to his course on French Literature and Art from 1850 to the Present.

The School is also proud to announce the appointment of M. Jean Bonnerot, the Chief Librarian of the University of Paris, and an authority on Sainte-Beuve. M. Bonnerot will teach a course on The French Critics of the Nineteenth Century and a seminar on the Methods of Literary Research.

Other features of the session are: the return of M. Michel Mohrt, also coming directly from France to teach two courses, French Thought in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries, and The 'Personal Journals' of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries; a new course by M. Boorsch, Rabelais and Montaigne; the return of Mmes Bertrand and Tourtebatte, and of most of last year's faculty; and the appointment of many new instructors recently arrived from France.

DAILY COURSES

A. Language

Directeur d’études, M. GUILLOTON

11. ADVANCED FRENCH STYLISTICS.

The purpose of this course is to impart to advanced students a finer feeling for French style, a sense for shades of expression, a mastery of certain difficulties not discussed in more elementary courses. Theoretical lessons in stylistics; advanced exercises in translation. Strictly limited to twenty students. 8:00 M. GUILLOTON.

12. ADVANCED COMPOSITION.
Intended for students who, having a good knowledge of French, have not yet mastered certain peculiarities of grammar and other difficulties. Translations of increasing difficulty; class discussions; study of important points of grammar. Each section limited to twenty students. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00 Mlle BOUCOIRAN, M. GIUET.

13. COMPOSITION AND ADVANCED GRAMMAR.
This course aims to strengthen the background and broaden the range of the teacher of French grammar and composition, while seeking to train him in the use of correct, idiomatic French. Review of theoretical grammar and its traditional treatment, in the light of actual usage and linguistic facts.
8:00, 9:00, 11:00, 12:00 MM. PARGMENT, BIEBER, Mlle HUNTBUCHLER.

14. INTERMEDIATE COMPOSITION AND REVIEW GRAMMAR.
This course is intended for students who have only an incomplete mastery of the language; it aims to impart a reasonable degree of proficiency in the use of written French, and offers a systematic review and application of the fundamental principles of grammar. (This course does not count toward the M.A. degree.)
8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00 MM. PARGMENT, BIEBER, Mlle HUNTBUCHLER.

16. (OLD FRENCH.)
Omitted in 1949.

NOTE: A written test will be given early in all the Language Courses. According to the results of this test, students will be assigned to the proper section of the course in which they registered, or to another course in this group.

B. Phonetics and Diction

Directeur d’études pour la phonétique, M. DELATTRE
Directeur d’études pour la diction, MM. MOUSU

21. (LABORATORY COURSE IN EXPERIMENTAL PHONETICS.)
Omitted in 1949.

22. ADVANCED PHONETICS.
This course aims to teach students, who already have a good knowledge of phonetics and whose pronunciation is sufficiently correct, the pronunciation accepted among cultivated French people, and to give them a practical method of teaching phonetics to their pupils. References to the scientific theory of phonetics with a view to its practical application. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00 M. DELATTRE, MM. MOUSU, BERTRAND.

23. INTERMEDIATE PHONETICS.
A continued study of practical phonetics, with its application to personal pronunciation. Correct formation of French sounds; sounds in isolation and combination; oral exercises and ear training. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00
M. DELATTRE, MM. MOUSU, BERTRAND, TOURTEBATTE.
24. ELEMENTARY PHONETICS.

The beginnings of a scientific training in French pronunciation, based on phonetics. Methodical comparison of English and French sounds. For students who have never studied phonetics, and for those who have never attacked the problem of their pronunciation in a scientific manner. (This course does not count toward the M.A. degree.)

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00

M. Marty, Mmes Bertrand, Tourtebatte, Mlle de Commaille.

25. DICTION, INTONATION, ELOCUTION.

This course is meant to complete the work done in phonetics and should not be taken without a good knowledge of phonetics. It aims to impart, not an artificial pronunciation, but the expressive and musical shading for French diction, used in ordinary conversation as well as in public reading or speaking.

9:00, 10:00, 11:00

Mme Moussu, Mlle Rey.

NOTES:

1. In all Phonetics and Diction classes, placement tests will be given at the beginning, and each section will be limited to fifteen students.

2. In all Phonetics and Diction classes, intensive oral training will be given through the use of phonograph recordings, and all students will be expected to make extensive use of the facilities of the Phonetics Center (see page 24).

C. Methods and Professional Training

31. THE TEACHING OF FRENCH.

The history of foreign language teaching; aims and objectives, as influenced by successive investigations and educational policies; classroom problems, courses of study, conversation groups; selection and evaluation of textbooks; the French teacher's position in the community. Library reading and reports. The practical aspects of the problems involved will be stressed.

2:00 Miss Emgarth.

33. FRENCH CLUB ACTIVITIES.

The organization of a successful Cercle Français, and the practical problems connected with it: creating and maintaining a French atmosphere, stimulation of student interest, research and utilization of suitable material: songs, games, dramatizations, photographs, slides, films, etc. Typical programs worked out in full.

Textbooks: Le Cercle Français, by Ruth C. Morize; Le Cercle Français, by R. P. Jameson.

10:00 Miss Crandall.

NOTE: The students in this course, as well as all the students of the School, will have access to the facilities of the Realia Collection, and are urged to consult Miss Crandall, in charge of the Collection, about special problems and needs (see page 24).

D. Literature and Civilization

Directeur d'études, M. Guilloton

41. FRENCH LITERATURE AND ART FROM 1850 TO THE PRESENT.

Toward the middle of the nineteenth century, the later aspects of Romanticism provided the impetus for the beginning of an interrelationship between literature and the plastic arts, which has not ceased to grow ever since. A stimulating dialogue took place between the main schools of both artistic activities during the latter part of the nineteenth century and the first part of the twentieth, its progress punctuated by such works as Baudelaire's Curiosités esthétiques, Taine's Philosophie de l'art, Apollinaire's Les Peintres cubistes, Breton's Le Surréalisme et la peinture, Malraux's Psychologie de l'art. The course will follow the detailed history of these developments and show that Baudelaire's dream of "correspondances" was not an empty one, but that it heralded a new age of artistic creativeness.

44. FRENCH CIVILIZATION IN A CHANGING WORLD.

The various geographical, historical, economic, social, and cultural elements that make an understanding of France and its civilization possible will be examined in the light of the many problems which France has yet to meet, faced as she is with the challenge of a fast changing world.

9:00 M. BOURCIER.

The main currents of philosophical thought in France, from the years immediately following the French Revolution to the first years of the present century, studied with reference to their historical setting and to the literary movements they helped to determine: the religious revival of the Restoration years, illuminism, counter-revolutionary doctrines, Auguste Comte's positivism and the anti-intellectualist reaction of Bergson will be among the trends examined.

12:00 M. MOHRT.

47. NINETEENTH CENTURY FRENCH CRITICISM.

Beginning with the classical concept of literary criticism in the seventeenth century and the first signs of a new conception in the eighteenth century, the course will study the main trends of nineteenth century criticism, as exemplified by Sainte-Beuve, Taine, Brunetière, Jules Lemaître, Faguet and the lesser critics.

9:00 M. BONNEROT.

49. THE "PERSONAL JOURNALS" IN THE NINETEENTH AND TWENTIETH CENTURIES.

A study of the "personal journal" type of writing, from Stendhal to Gide, with special emphasis on the psychological and historical value of such "confessions." Benjamin Constant, Delacroix, Vigny, Baudelaire, Jules Renard, Barrès will be among the authors examined.

10:00 M. MOHRT.

50. THE METHODS OF LITERARY RESEARCH AND TEXT CRITICISM.

A seminar, designed to acquaint the more advanced students, and particularly candidates for the doctorate, with the methods of research and the critical establishment of a text. The course will deal with such problems as the examination of manuscripts, the dating of texts, sources and influences, bibliographies and biographies.

2:00 M. BONNEROT.

51. STUDIES IN THE CONTEMPORARY NOVEL.

The present day movements and tendencies in the French novel, with special emphasis on the literary expressions of existentialism. Duhamel, Mauriac, Romain, Giraudoux, Malraux, Camus and Sartre. Readings, lectures and a detailed examination of representative works through analyses and discussions.

9:00 M. BOORSCH.
54. THE DRAMA OF THE ROMANTIC PERIOD.
The dramatic works of Hugo, Vigny, Dumas, Musset and Scribe studied and discussed from the point of view of dramatic theory and practice as well as background, influence, and literary value. A previous knowledge of the period, although not a prerequisite, would be desirable. Lectures, collateral readings, class discussions. 12:00 M. Denkinger.

57. THE DRAMA OF THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY.
The masterpieces of Corneille, Molière and Racine will be read and discussed. A study will be made of the evolution of the drama during the century, as well as the role played by minor authors, with factual data on stagecraft and the life of the actors. Lectures, collateral readings, class discussions. 10:00 M. Denkinger.

59. THE TIMES AND WORKS OF RABELAIS AND MONTAIGNE.
A detailed study of the works of Rabelais and Montaigne, against the background of changing times: the weakening of medieval thought, new contacts with antiquity, new human horizons, the birth of new ideologies. 12:00 M. Boorsch.

63. EXPLICATIONS DE TEXTES.
Reading and interpretation of French texts, according to a method extensively used in French universities. Demonstrations and criticisms by the instructor, written preparation and oral practice by the students. Short passages from representative authors will be chosen for detailed analysis. 10:00 M. Valette.

Note: All students, especially doctorate candidates, who are working on a problem of literary research or any other academic project, should not fail to profit by the individual guidance offered by the school staff. Personal interviews and consultations will be arranged with members of the staff who specialize in the same field.

E. Oral Practice
Directeur d'études, M. Thomas

74. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION.
Carefully selected groups, limited to ten students, for intensive training in French oral practice and self-expression. A detailed program arranged for each hour; prepared discussion on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation; short debates, oral reports. This course is required for the Master's degree. 9:00, 10:00, 11:00 Mmes Guilloton, Fourel.

75. CONVERSATION AND VOCABULARY.
A systematic course, based on a daily two-hour plan, for students who understand French readily but need to gain confidence and efficiency in speaking. The students will: 1. attend a required general meeting, for a thorough study of the topics and materials to be used in the next day in the practice sections; 2. in these sections, carry on actual conversation on the topics and with the material presented on the preceding day. (This course does not count toward the M.A. degree.)

General meeting at 8:00 M. Thomas. Sections, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 M. Valette, Mmes Cassigneul, Hammel, Payrou, Rey, Richard.
76. ELEMENTS OF ORAL PRACTICE.

A systematic course, based on the aural-oral method, for students unaccustomed to hearing or speaking French. The students will: 1. listen to specially-made records and take from dictation the topics and materials to be used in their oral practice, the next day; 2. converse, in small sections, on the topics and with the material gathered by them on the preceding day. (This course does not count toward the M.A. degree.)

General meeting at 2:00 M. Thomas & Assistant.
Sections, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00 M. Thomas, Mlle de Commaille.

Note: Enrolment in all Oral Practice courses is on a tentative, probationary basis. At the end of the first week, or before, students will be assigned to the proper course, according to their ability.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of French  No student will be admitted unless he is able and willing to use only French during the seven weeks of the session, even in the individual dormitory rooms or when away from the campus. The school reserves the right to refuse admission, at the opening of the session, to any student who fails to satisfy this basic requirement. Each student, when admitted, will sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule. The school reserves the right to dismiss, at any time, students who willfully break the rule. (See page 4.)

Credits  Two credits will be allowed for each course, unless otherwise indicated. All courses count toward the Bachelor's degree, and all except Courses 14, 24, 75, and 76 count for the Master's degree. (The courses which do not count for the M.A. are: Intermediate Composition, Elementary Phonetics, Conversation and Vocabulary, and Elements of Oral Practice.)

Courses 11 and 12, in Stylistics and Advanced Composition, may with the consent of the Dean be taken a second summer for credit, since the material of the course is varied each year.

Requirements for Degrees  All candidates for the Master's degree are required to pass, before the completion of their work, an advanced course in each of the following subjects: Language, Phonetics, Methods, Literature, Civilization and Oral Practice. Courses 12, 23, 31, 74, and two courses in Group D, one of literature and one of civilization, satisfy these requirements. Students who have transferred credit for an equivalent course taken elsewhere may request release from the requirement.

Students who intend to work for the D.M.L. (see page 6) are accepted on a tentative, probationary basis before being officially enrolled as candidates for that degree. During that period, the school reserves the right to ask of the students that they show evidence of their qualifications by submitting a long paper on some agreed subject.

French Libraries  The French Libraries, in the College Library and the Château, enriched in 1938 by a very generous gift from the French Government, contain close to 10,000 volumes, dealing with the French language, literature, history, and civilization. They include recent publications of note in fiction, poetry and drama, as well as noteworthy collections on the subjects of realia, art, and teaching methods.

Books  During the session there are two bookstores for the French School. The College Bookstore, in the Student Union, carries class textbooks, dictionaries, and school editions printed in this country. La Librairie française in Pearsons Hall attempts to reproduce a bookshop in Paris, handling French texts and reference works, but specializing in contemporary literature, novels, poetry, drama, and non-fiction.

Realia Collection  A unique collection of illustrative material is on display at Pearsons Hall. Provincial costumes, models of regional houses and furniture, dressed dolls, santons, Guignol accessories, books for children, illustrated magazines, language games of all sorts, railway posters, postcards and photographs of all parts of France, decorations for classrooms, extensive files of suggested realia, addresses and sources—all these may be consulted by students during regular daily hours.

Phonetics Center  The scientific equipment for the study of pronunciation and diction is assembled in a coordinated unit on the ground floor of Pearsons, known as Le Centre de Phonétique. It consists of a recording phonograph, magnetic wire recorders, individual booths with electric phonographs equipped with ear-phones, and a large collection of commercial phonograph records of French speech. It is open during regular daily periods, with trained assistants in charge, to aid students in their work. Consultations can also be arranged with members of the phonetics staff, for individual coaching, and correction of recordings.

Other Equipment  All the teaching equipment of the school is exceptionally complete. In addition to the Phonetics Center and the Realia Collection, the school is well supplied with wall maps, charts, stereopticon and opaque projectors, silent and sound moving picture projectors, together with large collections of slides on French geography, and the history of French art and period styles. Extensive use is made of mimeographed material, each class being supplied with outlines, schedules, and special exercises at very small cost.
Lectures  On Tuesday evenings, and occasionally on other evenings as well, at 8:00 in the Gymnasium, there will be special lectures by the Director, the Visiting Professor, and others.

Entertainments  The Friday evening plays, presented by the Faculty, and preceded by the community singing of folk songs, will continue to be an important feature of the School life. For the singing, Chantons un peu, by R. M. Conniston, Odyssey Press, will be used; students should bring their own copy. One of the most enjoyable elements of the school program is the series of concerts of chamber music on Sunday evenings by guest artists. A series of foreign language moving pictures will be arranged for Wednesday evenings.

Chapel Services  Chapel services in French are held every Sunday morning at 10:45 in the Mead Memorial Chapel. These services are not obligatory but all persons interested are invited to attend. Short organ recitals, auditions of religious music and readings from French religious or spiritual writings are given. The large vested choir will continue to be a feature of the chapel services.

M. Topaze.— "... quel est l'état d'esprit de l'honnête homme après une journée de travail? Elève Ségudille.—Il est fatigué." (Topaze, Acte I) Consultations  The entire staff of the school places itself at the disposal of the students for consultation and assistance. M. Guilloton will hold regular consultation hours for all students in his office in Forest Hall. The Dean, M. Bourcier, may be consulted at the Château Office daily from 9:00 to 12:00, and by appointment, on all matters concerning courses, schedules, credits, etc.

Dormitory Life  All the dormitories of the school are in fact French Houses, since French is the only language used. Each dormitory is under the supervision of the Dean, through appointed hosts and hostesses, responsible to him for the discipline in the building and for the development, in each house, of a social life and a spirit of informal friendliness between students.

There is a graduate nurse in residence on the campus, within the reach of every student. The students may feel that they are amply protected in case of any emergency.

Forest Hall  Forest Hall, one of the newest and finest dormitories on the campus, is built of native stone in colonial style; all rooms are single, with washrooms between every two rooms. There are reception rooms, parlors, and dining rooms, accommodating all the students living in the building. The office of M. Guilloton and the faculty club room are also located here.

Le Château  A typically French edifice inside and out, and one of the most striking features of the French School, le Château was inspired by the Pavillon Henri IV of the Palace of Fontainebleau. The large salon is attractively furnished in period furniture and decorated with a beautiful set of late XVIIth century portraits, a recent gift of Mr. James Hazen Hyde of New York City. The Château also houses the tasteful salon of the Faculty, two classrooms, a library, and the offices of the Dean.

Other French Houses  Pearsons Hall is a large white marble structure of colonial style, located on a height overlooking the surrounding country in all directions. Battell Cottage is adjacent, with rooms and a large dining hall. Pleasant shaded grounds adjoin Battell Cottage and Pearsons Hall. Painter Hall, the oldest and most historic building on the campus, now completely remodeled, has attractive single and double rooms. Chairs on the lawn and under the trees provide pleasant opportunities for reading and study out of doors.

Dining Halls  Four dining halls serve the French School, one in Battell Cottage, two in Forest Hall and one in the Château. The students gather at tables for seven or nine, each table presided over by a member of the staff. Students and teachers rotate according to a fixed schedule, enabling all to get better acquainted.

OTHER INFORMATION

Scholarships  For the summer of 1949 at least twenty-five scholarships of seventy-five dollars each are available, to be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application blanks may be obtained from the Dean, and must be filed before May 1. The awards will be announced about May 15.

Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, made possible through the generosity of friends of the French School: two James Richardson Scholarships, established by Mrs. James Richardson of Providence, R. I.; the Stella Christie Scholarship, established by Mrs. C. C. Conover of Kansas City; the Berthe des Combos Favard Scholarship, given by the Cercle Français of Chicago; several scholarships by generous anonymous donors; and an unspecified number of French Government Scholarships.

Self-Help  Another way in which students may assist in defraying their expenses is by waiting on table in the French dining halls, or working in the kitchens that serve the school. Remuneration will vary, depending on the type of work done, but will, in any case, cover the expense of board. Application blanks may be obtained from the Dean, and must be filed before May 1. Appointments will be announced about May 15.

Arrival  Beginning Friday morning, July 1, students will be met at the train by a representative of the French School, who will direct them to taxis and assist them with arrangements for luggage. As soon as possible, students should report to the Château to enroll for their courses, and to receive other information. (See also pages 7 and 8). Enrolment will take place on Friday, July 1, and Saturday, July 2. The first official assembly of the French School will be held on Sunday evening, July 3, at 8:00 at the Gymnasium. All students are required to attend. Classes begin at 8:00 Monday morning, July 4.

Winter Session  The attention of the students is called to the fact that, during the regular academic year, the French Department of the College, with a faculty almost entirely native French, offers a program of regular and special graduate courses leading to the Master's degree. The rule of speaking only French is maintained throughout the year.
Students may enter for the fall or spring term, and combine their work with study in the Summer School.

Placement Service  Both the French Summer School and the French Department maintain an active file of offers of teaching positions and make their service available to students without charge. Special blanks for teachers seeking positions will be sent on request.

The Graduate School of French in France  Starting with the fall of 1949, Middlebury College organizes a Graduate School of French in France, in cooperation with the various Institutes or Schools of the University of Paris, and under the guidance and supervision of a resident representative of the College. The plan aims at offering to the American graduate student of French a unified and complete program of study in France, culminating in a recognized American Master's degree. A detailed bulletin will be sent on request. (See also inside front cover).

Correspondence  Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, admission to the school, scholarships and self-help should be addressed to the Dean of the French Summer School, Le Château.

Correspondence concerning rooms, fees and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Summer Schools.

Correspondence concerning the winter session should be addressed to the Head of the French Department, or to the Chairman of the Graduate Committee.

Correspondence concerning the Graduate School of French in France should be so addressed.

All correspondence should further bear the mention, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.
Deutsche Sommerschule

(From July 4 to August 18)

The Middlebury German School is the forerunner of all the Middlebury Language Schools. It was founded in 1915 on the initiative of Miss Marian P. Whitney, former head of the German Department of Vassar College, and of Miss Lilian L. Stroebe of Vassar who was its director until 1918. When the school reopened in 1931, Professor Ernst Feise of the Johns Hopkins University was appointed Director and the School was removed to the neighboring village of Bristol in accordance with the Middlebury principles of isolation and concentration. Here, every student is merged into an intimate academic and social circle, in which German is the sole medium of communication. Upon the retirement of Dr. Feise in 1948, Dr. Neuse, Dean of the School since 1932, was appointed Director.

THE COURSES OF STUDY

On Tuesday, July 5, all new students will be given a preliminary examination covering grammar, free composition, and the ability to understand the spoken word. The purpose of this test is to determine the degree of proficiency of each student, thus helping him in choosing his courses adequately and obviating later changes. Beyond this it will in no way affect the student’s standing in the School.

A. Literature

(An advance reading list for certain literature courses will be furnished by the Language Schools Office or the Director upon application.)

11. MEDIEVAL GERMAN LITERATURE.

Representative works such as the Hildebrandslied, the Nibelungenlied, M.H.G. lyrics, the religious drama, writings of Hans Sachs and the Reformation. Lectures on Medieval Civilisation as reflected in the great M.H.G. epics.

11:30 Mr. Schirokauer.
20. SPECIAL INVESTIGATION.
Students advanced in their graduate study may work on special topics under the guidance of one of the members of the staff. They are, however, urged to confer with the Director before the opening of the School so that the object may be defined and the necessary books procured. (One or two credits.)

21. GOETHE'S FAUST.
An interpretation of both parts of the drama, with special attention to the sources and genesis (Faustbuch, Puppenspiel, Urfaust, etc.), the life and thought of the poet, and the general spirit of the "Age of Goethe." 11:30 Mr. Sell.

23. GOETHE'S LYRICS.
A study of Goethe's lyrics from the "Buch Annette" to the "Elegie." 10:30 Mr. Sell.

35. NINETEENTH CENTURY FICTION (INTRODUCTORY LITERATURE COURSE).
Stories of Keller, Meyer, and Storm will be read and discussed in detail during the first part of the session; during the second, critical analysis will be based upon rapid reading. (No advanced students will be admitted, so that reading and speaking ability of participants may be developed gradually.) 8:30 Miss Cohn.

36A. GERHART HAUPTMANN.
Introduction to his work with readings from his plays, fiction, and verse. Biographical, philosophical, and aesthetic problems. 9:30 Mr. Steinhauser.

B. Civilization

42. GERMAN FOLKLORE.
Reading and discussion of German folk lore material such as Märchen, legends, folk-songs, proverbs. Folk customs, beliefs, and traditions will be treated in connection with the reading to produce a general picture of the German Volkscharakter. 9:30 Mr. Neuse.

C. Language

51. HISTORICAL SURVEY OF THE GERMAN LANGUAGE.
An introduction to the essentials of German phonology, morphology, syntax, and semantics, with special emphasis upon the development of Neuhochdeutsch. Lectures and illustrative readings. 10:30 Mr. Schirokauer.

55. PRACTICAL PHONETICS.
A study of the formation and combination of German speech sounds with practical exercises. Special emphasis will be laid on characteristics of spoken German, such as rhythm and speech melody as factors of expression. 8:30 Mr. Sundermeyer.

All students deficient in German pronunciation will be required to do special work in the phonetics laboratory until their defects are corrected.
D. Language Practice

61. ADVANCED COMPOSITION AND STYLISTICS.
A systematic study of style, shades of meaning, adequacy of expression. A thorough knowledge of German grammar is prerequisite for this course. 7:30 Mr. Politzer.

65. COMPOSITION AND GRAMMAR REVIEW.
A systematic review of German grammar and syntax. Compositions of gradually increasing difficulty, proceeding from concrete observations to theoretical and abstract discussion. 7:30 Miss Cohn, Mr. Steinhauser.

68-A. GRAMMAR.
A thorough review of grammatical forms, syntax, and basic vocabulary. Daily papers and reports. This course forms a unit with the ORAL PRACTICE course and should be taken in conjunction with the latter. No auditors. 7:30 Mr. Tiller.

69-A. ORAL PRACTICE.
A systematic course in oral self-expression, with emphasis on enunciation and intonation. Prepared and extemporaneous talks, dialogues, and group discussions. Forms a unit with the GRAMMAR course and should be taken without the latter only by students who possess a thorough knowledge of grammar. No auditors. 11:30 Mr. Tiller.

E. The Teaching of German

71. METHODS OF TEACHING.
A comparative study of contemporary writers and movements in the field of modern language teaching for the purpose of appraising their contributions to the teaching of German in secondary schools and colleges. Selection and organization of subject matter, critical discussion of various theories and methods in their historical order. Textbooks and literature. 2:15 Mr. Sundermeyer.

E. THE TEACHING OF GERMAN

71. Methods of Teaching

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

The Aims The school is primarily designed for advanced students who, possessing a fair speaking and reading knowledge of German, wish to perfect their ability to use it and desire to deepen and broaden their acquaintance with German literature as well as with its cultural background and the soil on which it has grown. Such aims will appeal primarily to teachers, graduate students, and German majors.
Location  The location proved highly successful from the very outset. The life of the little German community centers around the quaint New England square of the village, with the schoolhouse at one corner, the Bristol Inn at another, and the dozen houses in which the students are located, scattered in the immediate vicinity. Owing to the good library and art collection lent by the College, the schoolrooms and the annex of the Inn radiate a German atmosphere essential for carrying out the plans of the school. For it is necessary that the student, beyond the knowledge to be acquired in the classroom, should come into an intimate contact with the cultural values of the foreign country.

Admission  For all questions concerning admission see page 4. In order to avoid too many changes during the first week of the session new students are asked to show in a preliminary test their proficiency in the German language (see page 32). Since the success of the school and the benefit derived from attending it depend on the creation of an atmosphere of intimate group consciousness and the carrying out of a carefully planned program of six weeks, participation in all official activities of the school, such as lectures, after-dinner gatherings, and singing is obligatory. Students not wishing to participate in the social life of the school can be accepted only in very rare cases with the consent of the Director and after an examination in which they have proved their excellence in handling the language. They are, however, expected to take part in the daily singing and to attend extracurricular lectures and programs. (For Auditors see page 8).

Credits Two credits will be allowed for all courses meeting five hours a week. All courses count toward the Baccalaureate degree and the Master’s degree. Other information concerning credits and degrees will be found on page 6.

Center The social center and dining hall will be at the Bristol Inn in a separate annex. The Inn is an old hostelry, well known in Vermont for its gracious hospitality.

Meals Breakfast will be served at seven, lunch at half-past twelve, and dinner at half-past six. The students gather at small tables, each table presided over by a member of the faculty. Students and teachers rotate according to a fixed schedule so as to enable all to get acquainted. After the noon meal German songs are sung in the Gartensaal, the social room of the German School back of the Inn.

Lectures and Plays Lectures and plays will be given after dinner three times weekly. “Literarische Sonntagsandachten,” not conflicting with local church services, will be held every Sunday morning.

Recreation and Sport On Saturdays, the school organizes hikes into the near-by Green Mountains or to lakes in the Champlain Valley. Faculty members regularly participate in these outings, and students will enjoy this period of week-end relaxation during which the foreign language is used in an atmosphere different from that of the classroom. The local ball park where group games (Schlagball, etc.) are frequently played offers further opportunities for physical exercise. On Tuesday and Friday evenings all students are expected to join in the folk dances which are taught on the lawn behind the Inn.

OTHER INFORMATION

Arrival On July 5, students should report in the Library of the German School which is located in the Gymnasium of the local High School. There the Director will advise them regarding courses and give out other information from 10:00 a. m. on. All students will meet the representatives of the College Treasurer at the same place.

The first meal will be supper at the Inn at 6:30 the same day. The first official assembly of the German School will be held at 8:30 in the Gartensaal of the Inn. All students are required to attend. Classes will begin at 8:30 Tuesday morning, July 5, following the preliminary examination at 7:30.

Bookstore At the Bücherstube books used in the courses may be purchased; but also other books will be offered for sale at moderate prices.

Opportunities for Service All waiters and waitresses in the German School dining hall must be able to speak German. In order to secure such a staff, opportunity is offered to a limited number of students to earn their board in return for their service. Those interested should write for application blanks to the Director of the School as early as possible.

Scholarships In commemoration of the late Professor Martin Sommerfeld who taught in the German School in the summer of 1939, a scholarship fund was established through generous contributions from students and faculty. This scholarship, known as the Martin Sommerfeld Scholarship, will be awarded each year to the amount of $100, and it will be open to all former and new graduate students who would be unable to attend without financial assistance. In addition to the Martin Sommerfeld Scholarship three other scholarships of $100 each are available. These four scholarships will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application blanks may be obtained from the Director of the German School and must be filed before April 1. The awards will be announced by May 1.

Address Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, and admission to the School, should be addressed to Prof. Werner Neuse, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to Summer Schools Office, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.
Scuola Italiana

(FROM JULY 1 TO AUGUST 18)

The Italian school of Middlebury College was founded in 1932 by Dr. Gabriella Bosano, of Wellesley College. After her resignation in 1938, the work she had so ably begun was continued with energetic enthusiasm and with marked success by Dr. Camillo P. Merlino, of Boston University. Since Dr. Merlino’s resignation in 1947, Dr. Salvatore J. Castiglione, of Yale University, has been Director.

It is with much pleasure that the Director announces the appointment, as Visiting Professor, of Professor Giuliano Bonfante, of Princeton University, a graduate of the University of Rome, eminent scholar and linguist; also the appointment of Dr. Maria Arrighi, of Connecticut College, a graduate of the University of Pisa; of Dr. Giorgio Banfi, of Cornell University, a graduate of the Politecnico of Milan; and of Dr. Rigo Mignani, of Harvard University, a graduate of the University of Florence, and assistant in the Department of Romance Philology of that University. The Italian School welcomes back Dr. Bianca Calabresi, a graduate of the University of Bologna, of the 1948 faculty.

THE COURSES OF STUDY

A. Language

1. INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION.
A thorough review of Italian grammar; vocabulary building; free composition; translation. This course is intended for students who have a good elementary knowledge of the language; it aims to impart a reasonable degree of proficiency in the use of the fundamental principles of grammar.
Daily at 9:00.
SIGNORINA ARRIGHI.

2. ADVANCED COMPOSITION.
An advanced course for students possessing a good knowledge of Italian. It will consist of translations from English into Italian of a variety of texts of increasing difficulty. There will also be practice in original composition. Frequent reference will be made to grammar and syntax in the systematic study of idioms.
Daily at 9:00.
SIGNOR CASTIGLIONE.

3. ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION.
Daily training in current Italian designed to help the student gain assurance in self-expression in the language. Word study, oral reports on concrete topics, and a systematic building up of the conversational vocabulary will be based on assigned topics.
Daily at 8:00.
SIGNOR BANFI.
4. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION.
   Intensive training in oral practice, public speaking and self-expression. A detailed program arranged for each hour; prepared discussion on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation; short debates, oral reports, oral criticisms of books or articles.
   Daily at 8:00. Signor Mignani.

5. PHONETICS.
   A practical study of Italian phonetics, based on the reading aloud of carefully chosen prose and poetry selections; emphasis not only on the correct pronunciation of Italian sounds, but also on the proper intonation of spoken Italian; classroom work will be integrated by the use of phonograph records.
   Daily at 12:00. Signorina Arrighi.

6. ORAL STYLISTICS.
   This course is designed to meet, through carefully planned exercises, the needs of those who have already acquired general proficiency in the spoken language. It aims to develop natural fluency through emphasizing the difference between what is merely correct and what is Italian.
   Daily at 11:00. Signora Calabresi.

7. HISTORY OF THE ITALIAN LANGUAGE.
   This course will cover: 1. the development of sounds and forms; 2. the history of the language proper; 3. the reading of old texts; and 4. general remarks on the dialects.
   Daily at 10:00. Signor Bonfante.

B. Literature and Civilization

11. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CULTURE. I.
   A survey of the major manifestations of Italian genius, from the 13th to the 16th centuries, in literature, art, philosophy, and science.
   Daily at 12:00. Signora Calabresi.

12. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CULTURE. II.
   (To be offered in 1950.)

13. DANTE: LE OPERE MINORI.
   Study and discussion of the Vita Nuova, Convivio, De Monarchia, and De Vulgari Eloquentia per se and as a reflection of moments in the development of Dante's literary, philosophical and political ideas.
   Daily at 9:00. Signor Mignani.

14. DANTE AND HIS TIMES (THE INFERNO).
   In the course of three summers the Divina Commedia is read and analyzed in the light of the literary, political, and religious ideals of the Middle Ages. In 1949 the Inferno will be the object of special study. This course may be taken for credit in three successive summers.
   Daily at 8:00. Signor Castiglione.

15. THE EPIC POETRY OF THE RINASCIMENTO.
   A study of the Italian epic, its character, development and artistic value; its place in the thought and the civilization of the Renaissance in Italy and in Europe. Reading of selections from various authors, especially Ariosto and Tasso.
   Daily at 11:00.

16. ITALIAN THOUGHT OF THE 18TH AND 19TH CENTURIES.
   An analysis of the main currents of Italian thought in the Settecento and in the Ottocento and of their relation to European thought of that period. Reading and discussion of selections from the works of Vico, Galluppi, Rosmini, Spaventa, etc.
   Daily at 10:00.

17. RESEARCH.
   All students, especially candidates for the doctorate who are working on a problem of literary or linguistic research, are invited to profit by the individual guidance offered by the school staff. Personal consultations will be arranged through the Director. Such assistance is gladly offered, and students are urged to take advantage of it.

   SIGNOR CASTIGLIONE, with the collaboration of members of the staff.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of Italian  The Middlebury idea of language learning requires for its effective execution a genuinely friendly atmosphere. This friendliness and spirit of happy cooperation is one of the most attractive features of the school. With it, the rule of no English soon loses its rigor, and the exclusive use of Italian becomes a pleasant challenge and discovery.

Italian Dormitories  For the summer of 1949, four fine fraternity houses on the Middlebury College campus, providing excellent dormitory accommodations, will serve as headquarters for the Italian School. Equipped with attractive social rooms and surrounded by spacious lawns shaded by trees, these houses lend themselves to the development of an atmosphere of friendly informality so conducive to "oral practice"—one of the main features of the Middlebury experience. Dr. and Mrs. Castiglione will reside in Sigma Phi Epsilon, thus actively promoting the spirit of good fellowship and understanding in an Italian atmosphere.

The Italian Dining Room  The attractive dining hall in Delta Kappa Epsilon will again be available to the Italian School. The hum of conversation in the dining room is natural and spontaneous. Prompted and guided by understanding instructors who preside at each table, the students quickly overcome their linguistic shyness. In order to get better acquainted with one another and with all the instructors, students are required to rotate according to a fixed schedule.

Activities  The morning hours will be given over to class work, leaving the afternoon free for recreation and study. Students and teachers will meet frequently in the evening for readings, lectures, choral assemblies, and social gatherings. All students are expected to take part in the weekly choral assembly and to attend extracurricular lectures and programs. The school picnics, informal instruction in folk dances, tennis, the popular game of "bocce," as well as hiking, afford further pleasant relaxation.
Members of the Italian School are always cordially invited to attend the special lectures and evening programs given under the auspices of the other Language Schools.

Credits  Unless otherwise indicated, two credits or semester hours will be allowed for each course, and all courses count toward the Master’s degree. (See also page 6.)

Note: Course 2 (Advanced Composition) and Course 6 (Oral Stylistics) may be taken twice for credit, as the material of the courses varies each year. Course 14 (Dante) may be taken three times for credit, once on the Inferno, once on the Purgatorio, and once on the Paradiso. No other courses in the school may be repeated for credit.

General Information

The Session opens for enrollment on Friday, July 1, and classes begin Monday, July 4, at 8:00 a.m. (See also pages 7 and 8.)

Admission  Students may enter without examination, and without being candidates for degrees. No student, however, will be admitted unless his qualifications are approved by the Director, and the right is reserved to place students in classes best suited to them.

Enrollment  As soon as possible after arriving on July 1, every student should enroll for courses with the Director. After arranging his program, he will be directed to the Treasurer for the payment of fees. Late enrollment is subject to fine and will not be permitted after the first week. (See page 8.)

Fees  For complete information concerning fees, rules governing auditors and special registration, reservations, etc., see pages 8 and 9.

Scholarships  For the summer of 1949, a number of scholarships are available. These will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Director before May 1. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:

- The Thomas J. Quirk Circolo Italiano Scholarship offered for the tenth consecutive year by the Circolo Italiano of the Hartford (Conn.) Public High School.
- The Italian Teachers Club of Hartford, Conn., Scholarship offered for the tenth consecutive year.
- The Rochester Scholarship offered for the sixth consecutive year by “IL SOLCO,” Italian Cultural Society of Rochester, N. Y.
The Del Fiorentino—Vagni Scholarship offered by the Reverend Dante Del Fiorentino, of Brooklyn, New York, and Emilio Vagni, of Mimico, Ontario, Canada. Two scholarships offered by the students of the 1948 session of the Middlebury College Italian Summer School.

Self-Help Another important way in which students may assist in defraying their expenses is by waiting on table in the Italian dining room. All waiters or waitresses are students at the school who are able to use Italian exclusively in the dining room. The remuneration for this service is their board. Those interested should write for information and application blanks to Dr. Castiglione.

Books A well-balanced and constantly expanding collection of Italian books, housed in the College Library, amply provides for the needs of the students. In addition, textbooks and other aids for the teaching of Italian will be available for examination.

In Sigma Phi Epsilon there is also an Italian bookshop at which students will be able to purchase the texts required for class work, as well as dictionaries and a variety of books of classic and modern Italian literature.
Correspondence  Correspondence concerning admission, credits, and choice of courses should be addressed to the Director of the Italian School, Dr. Salvatore J. Castiglione, 310 William L. Harkness Hall, Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut. Correspondence concerning fees, rooms, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Summer Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.
THE RUSSIAN SCHOOL enters its fifth year with an eminently qualified staff of native teachers, excellent facilities, a variety of new courses, and a rich entertainment and lecture program. As in the past, it will strive to answer the needs of American students who wish more intimate knowledge of Russia's humanistic culture, as well as to provide prospective teachers, scientists and diplomats with the needed background and training. The Director is happy to announce the appointment of Miss Vera Kovarsky, well known critic and lecturer on Russian art, and Dr. Vincent Kreve, authority on Slavic philology and literature. The curriculum will include the following new courses: History of Russian Art, Fyodor Dostoevsky: His Works and Influence, and History of the Russian Language.

EVENING LECTURES

Lectures by members of the staff and guest speakers will be held in the Social Hall in the Student Union.

COURSES OF STUDY

Survey courses are intended as a basis for more specialized courses to be offered in succeeding sessions. The research course (50) will afford opportunity for concentrated study on a subject of major interest. With the exception of certain basic courses, which are offered every summer, the program changes yearly, giving the student an opportunity to cover thoroughly, in a period of four years, the fundamental phases of Russian thought and letters.

I. Language

1. GRAMMAR REVIEW AND ORAL DRILL.
   Thorough and systematic review of Russian grammar and basic vocabulary. Drill on pronunciation, conversation, and reading. Intended for students whose background in Russian is insufficient to enable them to carry a full load on the graduate level. This course does not count toward the M.A. degree. Mrs. Feodorova-Pressman.

11. INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION.
   Compositions of gradually increasing difficulty. Study of synonyms, idioms and dictation. Practical application of grammatical principles. Mrs. Vacquier.

12. INTERMEDIATE CONVERSATION AND ORAL PRACTICE.
   Daily training in current Russian designed to provide the student with assurance in self-expression and a basic active vocabulary. Oral reports on assigned topics and class discussions. Mrs. Solova, Mrs. Feodorova-Pressman.

14. PRACTICAL PHONETICS.
   A course intended for students on the intermediate level who need systematic training in Russian pronunciation. Methodical comparison of English and Russian sounds. The sound mirror and records will be used. Enrollment will be restricted to those most in need of remedial work. Mr. Pressman.

21. ADVANCED COMPOSITION AND SYNTAX.
   This course is designed for students with a good grammatical foundation, but lacking certainty in direct application of their knowledge. Particular attention will be given to idomatic usage, shades of meaning and syntactical accuracy. The method will consist of translations, original compositions, and class discussions. Mrs. Solova, Miss Kovarsky.

22. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION.
   Intensive training in oral practice and self-expression. Prepared discussion on assigned topics with definite vocabulary preparation; oral reports; oral criticisms of books or articles. Intended primarily to develop self-confidence in expressing ideas in Russian.

23. (STYLISTICS.)
   (Omitted in 1949.)

24. (PHONETICS AND INTONATION.)
   (Omitted in 1949.)

25. HISTORY OF THE RUSSIAN LANGUAGE.
   A survey of the development of Russian literary language; its phonology, morphology and semantics. Effects of popular speech and literacy. Readings illustrating important phases in the development of the language, with special attention to modern Russian and to linguistic changes since the Revolution.

   Mr. Kreve.

II. Literature

30. LITERARY MASTERS OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.
   An analysis of the social, political, and artistic trends of the nineteenth century, as reflected in the fiction of Pushkin, Lermontov, Gogol, Turgenev, Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, Saltykov-Shchedrin, and Chekhov.

   Mr. Kunitz.

31. (CONTEMPORARY RUSSIAN LITERATURE.)
   (Omitted in 1949.)

32. SURVEY OF RUSSIAN LITERATURE TO 1800.
   An introduction to the literature of Russia from earliest times to Pushkin, with special emphasis on such early masterpieces as Slovo o Polku Igoru and the Byliny. Most of the time, however, will be devoted to 18th century authors. Illustrative examples only in old Russian will be used. Lectures, readings, and reports will require only the knowledge of modern Russian. Ample opportunity will be provided for class discussions.

   Mr. Kreve.

33. (RUSSIAN POETRY OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.)
   (Omitted in 1949.)

34. (DEVELOPMENT OF RUSSIAN DRAMA.)
   (Omitted in 1949.)

35. (LEO TOLSTOY: NOVELIST AND MORAL PHILOSOPHER.)
   (Omitted in 1949.)

36. (RUSSIAN SHORT STORY.)
   (Omitted in 1949.)

37. (LITERARY CRITICISM AND SOCIAL THOUGHT.)
   (Omitted in 1949.)

38. FYODOR DOSTOEVSKY: HIS WORKS AND INFLUENCE.
   Survey of literary and ideological currents of the period (1840–1880). Dostoevsky's works as related to other literary classics of the time. Evolution of his outlook and novelistic art. Influence at home and abroad. Lectures, oral and written reports, class discussions.

Mr. Fayer.

III. Civilization

40. (POLITICAL AND SOCIAL HISTORY OF RUSSIA TO 1917.)
   (Omitted in 1949.)

41. CONTEMPORARY RUSSIA.
   Russia since the Revolution; a survey of the significant ideological, economic, political, social, and scientific developments of the Soviet Union.  Mr. Kunitz.

42. HISTORY OF RUSSIAN ART.
   Survey of the development of Russian architecture, sculpture, and painting from the Kiev Period to the present day. The major portion of the course will deal with the period since 1700. An attempt will be made to correlate artistic trends with literary and other cultural events. Lectures, discussions and student reports. Miss Kovarsky.

50. RESEARCH.
   All students, especially degree candidates, who are working on a problem of research in any of the above divisions, are invited to profit by the individual guidance offered by the School staff. Personal consultations will be arranged through the Director. Such assistance is gladly offered, and students are urged to take advantage of it.
   Mr. Fayer,

   with the collaboration of members of the staff.
LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of Russian  To qualify for admission, students must be able and willing to speak only Russian during the entire session. At the opening of the School each student will be required to pledge his word of honor to observe this rule. Although it is the duty of the faculty to enforce this rule at all times, their sympathetic encouragement to use the language freely will, in a short time, make it appear as the only language natural in the congenial, friendly Russian atmosphere.

Living Accommodations  Starr Hall and Hillcrest will again be used by the Russian School. The dining room will be in Gifford Hall Recreation Room, where students will eat together in small groups, each table presided over by a member of the faculty. A system of rotation at meals provides opportunity for becoming better acquainted with each other and the faculty.

The large Social Hall in the Student Union Building will be used exclusively by the Russian School.

Activities  The schedule of classes is arranged to leave the afternoons free for study and recreation. Picnics, excursions to nearby lakes and mountains, "vecherinki" with musical and dramatic entertainments, lectures by instructors and guest speakers, informal singing, and Russian movies, will provide ample recreational activity. Regular evenings for study of Russian dances have been set aside. Weekly sings will be held in the Social Hall. Several plays will be staged under the direction of Anastasia Feodorova-Pressman. The beautiful scenery, cool evenings, and restful atmosphere make our informal, spontaneous get-togethers particularly delightful to students and teachers.

Credits  All courses offer two graduate credits with the exception of course 1 which offers credit toward the A.B. degree. See also page 6.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Arrival  Students arriving on the afternoon train on Friday, Saturday, or Sunday (July 1, 2, 3) will be met at the station by a representative of the Russian School. Students will enroll on Friday, July 1 (2:30–5:30) and on Saturday, July 2 (9:00–12:00, 2:00–5:30), and should do so as soon as possible after arriving. Formal opening of the School will be held Sunday, July 3 at 8:00 p. m. Classes will begin Monday, July 4 at 8:00 a. m. (See also page 7). The first meal will be served at noon, Friday, July 1.
Admission

Students may enter without examination and without being candidates for degrees. No student, however, will be admitted unless he can satisfy the Director of his ability to profit by the instruction offered. In the students' own interest, an effort will be made to place them in classes best suited to them.

Self-Help

Students may assist in defraying their expenses by waiting on table in the Russian dining hall, or by otherwise assisting the Director. The remuneration for waiting on table is board. Those interested should apply to the Director, before May 1.

Scholarships

A limited number of scholarships is available to qualified students. Only students who would be unable to attend without such financial assistance are eligible. These scholarships will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, scholastic promise, and interests. Applications received by the Director after May 1 cannot be considered.

Books

Some textbooks used in the courses in Russian may be purchased at the College Bookstore. Most books, however, will be available in the Russian School Bookstore located in Starr Hall.

All members of the School are invited to visit the Russian stacks in the Library and to acquaint themselves with the collection.

Correspondence

Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, and admission to the School should be addressed to Dr. Mischa H. Fayer, Director of the Russian School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Summer Schools, Middlebury College.
Escuela Española

(FROM JULY 1 TO AUGUST 18)

THE SPANISH SCHOOL again presents a course of studies which expresses the aim of the School—to act as a center for the proper formation and orientation of teachers and advanced students of Spanish. The organization is under the personal direction of Professor Juan A. Centeno of Middlebury College.

Special features in the program for this year include: a course on Spanish Intonation by Professor Navarro Tomás of Columbia University; a new course on Spanish Romanticism by Professor Joaquín Casaldueiro of New York University; a new course, Contemporary Spanish American Essayists, by Professor Jorge Mañach of the University of Havana; a course devoted to the novel in Spanish America by Professor Ermilo Abreu of the Division of Philosophy and Letters of the Pan American Union. A Visiting Professor from Spanish America will be appointed in collaboration with the Cultural Division of the Department of State. He will offer a course at ten o’clock entitled Studies in Contemporary Spanish American Literature.

THE COURSES OF STUDY

The courses are planned for teachers of Spanish and students who have acquired some proficiency in the language. With the exception of certain basic courses, which are offered every summer, the program changes yearly in a cyclic form. Candidates for an advanced degree will be required to have at least ten credits in literature and civilization courses. Students who have transferred credits for similar courses taken elsewhere may request release from the requirement.

I. Language

C. ELEMENTS OF ORAL PRACTICE.

For students who are unaccustomed to hearing or speaking Spanish although they may have an extensive "passive" vocabulary. (Undergraduate credit.)

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, and 12:00.
SRTA. DE MADARIAGA, SRTA. GARCÍA LORCA, SR. MARICHAL.

1. ORAL WORK AND SELF-EXPRESSION IN SPANISH.

Designed to help students in the process of gaining a better command of the language by requiring the use of a varied vocabulary and at the same time accuracy of expression.

SRTA. BRETÓN, SR. DEL PINO, SR. MARICHAL, SR. ÁLVAREZ.

2. ADVANCED GRAMMAR.

A systematic review of the fundamental principles of grammar. Abundant practice is provided in writing idiomatic Spanish and in the practical application of grammatical principles.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, and 11:00.
SRTAS. CURTIS-GUAJARDO, BIAGGI.

3. ADVANCED COMPOSITION.

This course aims to help students gain assurance in writing correct Spanish and is designed for those who, having a good grammatical foundation, lack precision in the direct application of that knowledge.

10:00, 11:00, and 12:00.
SR. LACAYO.

4. PHONETICS.

Intended for students who have never studied phonetics, this course will combine
At the exhibition of Cristóbal Ruiz.

Theoretical lessons with practical exercises. Its purpose is to give students a fundamental and scientific basis in phonetics as well as to improve their own pronunciation.
8:00 and 9:00. SRTA. NAVARRO, SR. FERNÁNDEZ.

5. SPANISH INTONATION.
The study of intonation is a necessary complement to the knowledge of the sounds. The idiomatic stamp of pronunciation and the exact meaning of sentences depend on the accuracy of their intonation. This course will present the principles necessary for such knowledge.
Daily at 10:00. SR. NAVARRO.

7. STYLISTICS.
A study of the evolution of structure and style in Spanish prose through analysis of texts; practical exercises in oral and written composition. 11:00. SR. MAÑACH.

9. THE SPANISH LANGUAGE IN AMERICA.
Within the fundamental unity of hispanic language and culture, the American countries of Spanish tradition offer special traits that are reflected in the literary language and in the languages of the common peoples. The present course is dedicated to the study of these facts, keeping in mind the forms of colonization, the contact with the Indian languages, the origin of the colonists and immigrants, the social conditions of American life and the circumstances of the cultural and political development of these countries.
Daily at 9:00. SR. NAVARRO.
50. APPLIED PHONETICS AND INTONATION.
The aim of this course is to incorporate the principles of Spanish Phonetics and Intonation into the gradual teaching of the language. Intended for students who already have a basic knowledge of Phonetics. 11:00. SR. FERNÁNDEZ.

II. Methods

10. (METHODS OF TEACHING SPANISH.)
(Omitted in 1949.)

III. Literature and Civilization

12. INTRODUCTION TO SPAIN.
A study of the main characteristics of Spain, of the Spanish people, and of the fundamental traits of its civilization. 11:00. SR. GONZÁLEZ LÓPEZ.

14. CONTEMPORARY HISPANIC AMERICA.
Preceded by a historical introduction covering the colonial background and the rise of nationalities, this course will present the most outstanding political, social, and economic problems affecting present-day Hispanic America. 10:00. SR. ENCINAS.

20. THE DEVELOPMENT OF SPANISH LITERATURE.
This course will give the student a clear view of Spanish literature rather than a list of names and dates. Its aim is to distinguish and classify the principal directions of Spanish literature from its origins to our time. 12:00. SR. GONZÁLEZ LÓPEZ.

21. LYRIC POETRY OF THE 16TH AND 17TH CENTURIES.
The purpose of this course is to give the student a complete view of the poetical world of the renaissance and the baroque periods. A study of the personality and significance of the most representative poets—Boscán, Garcilaso de la Vega, Fray Luis de León, Herrera, Lope de Vega, Góngora and Quevedo—of both periods.
Daily at 8:00. SR. CASALDUERO.

26. MODERN AND CONTEMPORARY SPANISH POETRY.
A study of the main trends and tendencies in Spanish poetry from the 19th century to the present, together with readings of the most significant authors. Daily at 9:00. SR. FLORIT.

30. SPANISH AMERICAN NOVEL.
Preceded by a study of the novel as a literary form, this course will present the most important manifestations of the novel in Spanish America. Daily at 11:00. SR. ABREU.

39. SPANISH AMERICAN LITERATURE. (1492–1810)
This course will present through lectures and readings a study of the literature in the Spanish American countries during the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries—to the wars of Independence. Daily at 8:00. SR. FLORIT.

44. CONTEMPORARY THEATRE.
The great Spanish tradition; social and political changes at the turn of the century as they affect the theatre; the transition from the romantic period; main trends during the XXth century as illustrated in the works of the most representative authors. The development of dramatic expression in Spanish America with special reference to Florencio Sánchez and the Río Plata movement.

Daily at 8:00.

SR. BARALT.

48. ROMANTICISM.

Using as a basis the texts of Don Álvaro, El Trovador, Los amantes de Teruel, and the poetry of Espronceda, this course will study the Romantic world in lyric poetry and in the drama.

Daily at 9:00.

SR. CASALDUERO.

49. SPANISH NOVEL OF THE 19TH CENTURY.

The development of the novel in Spain during the nineteenth century. A study of the most representative types as well as a presentation of the ideas of the times as reflected in these works.

Daily at 10:00.

SR. ABREU.

60. SPANISH AMERICAN CONTEMPORARY ESSAYISTS.

A survey study of the reflective prose writers whose ideas have most decisively contributed to the expression of Latin American consciousness in contemporary times.

Daily at 12:00.

SR. MAÑACH.

Credits  Two credits or semester hours will be allowed for each course unless otherwise specified. (See Credits, page 6). Course 3 may, with the consent of the Director, be taken a second summer for credit, since the material of this course is varied each year.

Books  General supplies and text books published in this country may be purchased in the College Bookstore. The Librería of the Spanish School is located in the social room of Hepburn Hall and is open regularly every afternoon. Here students may secure books printed abroad. On sale also are sets of intonation records, especially recorded for the Spanish School by Professor Tomás Navarro.

Library  The Spanish Library consists at present of over 5,000 titles comprising such subjects as language, literature, history, and civilization. During the past years, the library has been the recipient of many gifts from learned societies abroad. The most representative periodicals of Spain and Spanish America, as well as publications in this country dealing with the Spanish language and literature, are received.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of Spanish  The only language used in the school is Spanish; therefore, no student will be admitted to the school unless he is able and willing to use only Spanish while in attendance. Each student is required to pledge his word of honor to observe this rule. The Director reserves the right to dismiss students who willfully break this rule.

Spanish Dormitories One of the most attractive features of the school is the friendliness which exists between the faculty and students, in no small measure due to the fact that the Director and instructors, as well as all students, reside in the dormitories. Gifford Hall, the newest and one of the finest dormitories on the campus, will be occupied by the Spanish School. Double suites, connecting singles, and single rooms are available.

In Hepburn Hall, built on the highest point of the campus, the rooms are en suite with a study for each two students. All bedrooms are single, and each suite is connected with a lavatory. A spacious and delightful garden surrounds the southern exposure of Hepburn where students may lounge or study. There is a graduate nurse on regular duty on the campus within the reach of every student. The students may feel that they are amply protected in case of emergency.

Spanish Dining Rooms All members of the School take their meals in the dining rooms of Hepburn and Gifford Halls. Meal hours are conversation hours and also provide students with an opportunity of becoming better acquainted. To facilitate this, they are required to change tables according to a system of rotation.

Activities The activities outside of the recitation room constitute an important feature of the life of the student. These activities are designed not merely to furnish entertainment and relaxation, but also to give the student an opportunity to become better acquainted with various manifestations of Spanish customs and life. Weekly programs are announced at the beginning of each week and are arranged so as not to interfere with the student’s study and relaxation. These short programs include the following subjects: dance or musical recitals; dramatic or literary entertainments; readings, or informal talks by members of the faculty; Spanish games and plays; folk songs and dances; and Spanish moving-pictures.

Arrival Beginning Friday morning, July 1, students will be met at the station by a Spanish School representative who will direct them to taxis and assist with arrangements for luggage. As soon as possible, students should report to the Director to enroll for their courses and to receive other information. (See pages 7 and 8.)

The first official assembly of the Spanish School will be held on Sunday evening, July 3, at seven o’clock. All students are required to attend. Classes will begin at eight o’clock, Monday morning, July 4.
Scholarships  Several scholarships of fifty dollars each will be available this summer. Only students who have never attended the Middlebury Spanish School, and who would be unable to attend without such financial assistance, are eligible. These awards will be made on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Dean before May 1. The awards will be announced May 15.

Self-Help  A limited number of students are provided an opportunity to earn their board by acting as waiters and waitresses in the Spanish dining-halls. A speaking knowledge of Spanish is essential to be granted one of these positions. Those interested may write to the Dean for information and application blanks.

Mail to Students  In order to insure prompt delivery of their mail students should have all letters and other mail matter addressed in care of the Middlebury Spanish School, Middlebury, Vermont.

Correspondence  Communications regarding admission, courses, credits and other academic information may be addressed to Prof. Juan A. Centeno, Director of the Spanish School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.

Correspondence concerning fees and room reservations should be addressed to the Secretary of the Summer Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.
